“Wheel of Fortune LIVE!,” an all-new theatrical experience, is going on tour across North America. The all-new live stage show is the one-and-only way fans can experience America’s Game® in person outside of Sony Pictures Studios, and it’s right in their hometown theater.

One of the greatest game shows of all time wants to give more fans a chance to win at “Wheel of Fortune LIVE!” Guests can audition to go on stage and feel like they stepped into the game show itself. They will have the chance to spin a replica of the iconic Wheel and solve the puzzles on the tour’s puzzle-board to win fantastic prizes including up to $10,000, a trip to Paris, Hawaii and more at every show! Additionally, audience members will get in on the fun with the chance to be randomly selected to win cash and prizes.

Contestant registration for “Wheel of Fortune Live,” the theatrical experience (not the TV show), takes place on the day of the show, starting up to 3 hours prior to showtime. Registration closes at showtime. Each eligible person will present their valid government ID to the event staff if requested, then complete the registration process by supplying their name and month and numerical day of birth (1-31) for entry into the registration system. Ticket purchase is not required to register to be a contestant and will not be considered a factor in the random selection process.

Unfortunately, no. Registration will open 3 hours prior to each show. In some cases, guests will have the opportunity to pre-register by entering their information online prior to arriving at the venue. It is still necessary to complete registration in-person prior to the show in order to be included in the selection process.

Fortune to win

All eligible contestants wishing to register must present themselves in person and show a valid government I.D. if requested.

Early registration or online pre-registration, if available, allows contestants to avoid longer lines. Registration will stay open until the posted show time. It is not necessary for people to stay at the theatre once they register. The only requirement is that they be back at the theatre by showtime.

Win to fortune

Winners return to the stage after the show to complete the necessary paperwork. Prizes are sent directly to the winner’s residence.

Guests who want the chance to play as on-stage contestants are selected at random from among those who register. Audience game contestants are selected entirely at random from among everyone registered.
